Train staff are trained to warn passengers of this fact and to be vigilant. - Effective 2) CRITICAL - Administrative: All doors carry labels warning about opening doors when trains are moving, and the act of opening the window and leaning out to open the door makes the passenger look out and down, thus noticing if there is no platform there. - Effective	2 x Low - Risk to be monitored to ensure it remains adequately controlled to an acceptable level.	2 = 4	None	n	n	n/a
